Wow...is what the most astute tenant will say when they see this gorgeous family home. Years of love have been added to this delightful property and all that view it will be attracted to the 'homely feel' this property has to offer. Great size separate lounge area, lovely modern kitchen with separate dining room plus family area or second living that features polished floorboards and air conditioning. Four great size bedrooms with all featuring ceiling fans and built-in wardrobes. Lovely modern bathroom with plenty of natural light. The family room overlooks delightful manicured lawns and gardens with pergola plus large covered entertaining area. Laundry also features second toilet. Long driveway features double carport plus extra off street parking in lovely culdesac location in quiet family orientated street. This home truly must be seen to be appreciated!
