If you have been searching for a freestanding house but just can't find what you are looking for then this luxurious and spacious three bedroom townhouse could be your answer as it's street facing aspect and generous proportions, together with a high level of luxury inclusions make it feel more like a house than your typical townhouse, and the reasonable strata levies are an added bonus.

Step inside and be greeted by huge open plan living areas with extra high ceilings and quality floor tiles. The large kitchen has granite stone bench tops while upstairs there is a sumptuous master bedroom suite complete with ensuite, walk in wardrobe, split system air conditioning and balcony. The other two bedrooms include built in wardrobes and are both double sized.
