

20 Austin Woodbury Place Toongabbie NSW

3 2 2

Taking its design cues from classic Australian colonial architecture of a bygone era, set within a prestige neighbourhood this special home is one of a kind.

Constructed by renowned builders A.V. Jennings it offers immense kerbside appeal thanks to the extra wide frontage, the full length veranda across the front and a generous double garage.

Grand interiors ensure enough space for a growing family, including a formal living room with feature open fire and a large family/dining room adjoining a great sized kitchen. The master bedroom includes an ensuite while all bedrooms have built in wardrobes.

The 586m² parcel of land provides a large private backyard with established lawns, all fully secured with steel fencing

Price : $ 1,085,000
