

71 Greystanes Road Greystanes NSW

3  1  1

The ultra convenient location and totally affordable price point of this spacious 3 bedroom brick house on 601m2 make it one of the most exciting opportunities currently available in the hot Greystanes property market.

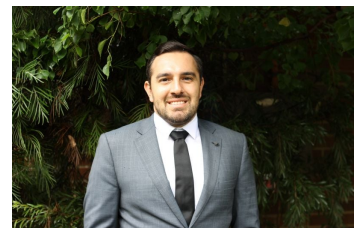

Offering immense street appeal thanks to a great looking triple fronted design and attached lock up garage, it's from an era when homes were quality built to last a lifetime and with a few cosmetic upgrades you could easily transform it into a modern masterpiece based on excellent bones.

Comprising a huge open plan living & dining room, a massive kitchen overlooking a large sunroom / second living area and bigger than average bedrooms including a king sized master bedroom while the attached lock up garage also offers further potential to convert into additional living space or bedrooms.

Price : $ 985,000
